

THE MONARCH OF NEGRO NEWS-PAPERS.

The ideal race newspaper, and published at the Capital of the Nation, is THE COLORED AMERICAN. It is clean, newsy, and ably and fearlessly edited. It is the organ of no clique or faction, but a fearless champion of the colored people everywhere. Its columns teem with news of the day, reflecting the best sentiments as well as the doings and achievements of the race everywhere. Read what the Negro press says:

THE COLORED AMERICAN is already a great newspaper, printing forty-eight columns each issue. It aims to print seventy-two columns. May its friends aid it to its realization.—The Wilmington Record.

Mr. Edward Cooper, manager of THE COLORED AMERICAN, Washington, D. C., is unquestionably the ablest all-round newspaper manager of our race, if results are to settle the question.—The New South.

THE COLORED AMERICAN is, without question, the greatest newspaper published by colored men; every colored editor should take off his hat to Mr. Cooper.—The Leavenworth Herald.

THE COLORED AMERICAN, of Washington, D. C., comes every week, brim full and running over with good things; Brother Cooper is one of the best newspaper men of the country.—The Huntsville Journal.

THE COLORED AMERICAN, in a short space of three years, has gone to the front at the Nation's Capital. Its manager, E. E. Cooper, holds a unique position in colored journalism, being the pioneer of illustrated journalism.—Ex.

Editor Cooper, of THE COLORED AMERICAN, has so many good things for his readers that he seriously contemplates making his a twelve-page, instead of an eight-page paper. This shows that THE COLORED AMERICAN is not only holding its own, but is doing more.—The Star of Zion.

THE COLORED AMERICAN, of Washington, D. C., will shortly issue a twelve-page paper weekly—seventy-two columns of reading matter. Under the able management of Editor Cooper it has forged ahead till it earned the name of "Monarch of the Weeklies."—The Western Outlook.

THE COLORED AMERICAN, a local hebdomadal, published in the interest of the colored people, came out in a new dress and with a beautiful heading Saturday. It is one of the best newspapers in the country edited by colored men; has a good circulation, and carries a large line of live advertising.—The Washington Post.

THE COLORED AMERICAN is without doubt one of the ablest journals published by Afro-Americans. It is a Republican paper, very free in its expressions, which makes it more popular even among those who deny the "equality of man." This paper is published at Washington, where the doings of the lawmakers of the great Republic may be had pure and fresh, and submitted to the people for their disposal.—The Rock Hill Messenger.

LAWYER SCOTT'S VICTORY.

Lawyer Armand J. Scott succeeded in getting the charge against Lewis Jennifer, the bell boy at the Arlington, who was charged with being equally guilty with Alice French, a white woman, accused of stealing money and valuables from Mrs. Payne, the wife of the postmaster general, nolle-prossed, and Jennifer was set at liberty. The woman is now serving her sentence of several years. Too much credit can not be given Lawyer Scott for the masterly manner in which he looked after the interests of young Jennifer, who although innocent was in a very ticklish position.

THE NEGRO DAILY NEWSPAPER.

A subscriber to The Colored American who is interested in the success of race newspapers, has suggested that the editor of this paper offer a prize in the way of a set of volumes of the best books written by colored authors, for the best article on "How to Make a Daily Negro Newspaper Pay." To this end The Colored American invites all persons who are interested in this subject to write their views and send them in. If the proper interest is taken, judges will be selected to decide upon the merits of the articles sent and the prize will be given to the winner.

It might be in order also for suggestions to come in as to what books and whose books should be given as prizes. (tf.)
